Meow! A week of making cat art! Let's jump in and get those paws wet with a super fun range of art materials and sniff out some tuna...

Online Camps

My Story My Voice: WordPlay comes to Wyoming with artists Elaine Olund, Natalie Villacorta, Pauletta Hansel

Ages 10+ 3 days: June 22, June 24, June 26 3-4 pm Cost: $90

Calling all young writers to this collaborative exploration of poetry, prose, and creative writing! Enjoy the opportunity to write and share your works with other teens, while being guided by professional writers- Elaine Olund & Natalie Villacorta. Discover and share your voice! In this 12-week writers circle, seasoned writing "masters" will work with student "apprentices" on multi-genre creative writing guided by each student's individual interests. This program is a great place for experienced and new writers alike to explore creative writing of all kinds—poetry, stories, sci-fi, fantasy— anything goes. Sharing is always optional. Come experiment and play with writing without grades or judgments!

Puppets Telling Stories: With Terrence Burke from WordPlay

Ages 5-9 3 days: June 29th, July 1, and July 3; 3-4 pm Cost: $90

The art of puppetry is decades old, and it's also the perfect way to introduce basic elements of storytelling to young ones. Kids will love crafting their own handmade puppets and creating stories about them, in the process learning about voice, plot and character. Perfect for both shy and outgoing children, Puppets Telling Stories is a great introduction to fundamental reading and writing skills.
