Preheader: Lots of fun programming available!

Hi!

The next few weeks have lots of fun programming available, both in person and remotely. You can choose how you want to interact with your family and friends.

Can you believe that there are less than 75 shopping days until Christmas? Are you ready?

In preparation, Amazon Prime is this week. You can support The Center with your purchase, by adding us as your non profit beneficiary. Please support us when shopping on Amazon: <http://smile.amazon.com/ch/31-1454096> by clicking on this link and then begin your shopping experience. Nothing changes on your side, The Center will receive a small percentage of your purchases, which we use to purchase art supplies and equipment.

Coming up: Monday, October 19

The Cincinnati Opera will be in the back parking lot at noon for a pop up event. They are bringing a Share the Love truck, with Soprano Victoria Ellington. Admission is free, art donations are welcome. Remember to wear a mask, social distance, and bring a chair. Grab lunch downtown and come on over. Event starts at noon.

No School, Let's Art. This is an all day art class with Ms. Annie. Cost is $65. Only 2 spots remain. You can register here!

Remote Programming

For those who are seeking only remote programming, The Center is excited to partner with ArtsConnect as we continue to offer Cincy Playhouse in the Park performances - Off the Hill. Wind in the Willows comes to your home with a one time viewing for the entire family. You can register for your free showing at
