Welcome to the month of LOVE! The shortest month of the year should be celebrated the longest since it is what we need the most in our lives. For the next few months, our team will be celebrating LOVE.

LOVE for our community - Loving Wyoming

LOVE for the arts - #ILoveTheArts - ArtsWave Annual Fund Campaign

LOVE for ourselves - a reminder to be gentle in our words to ourselves and each other

I am excited to share all of this month's activities around LOVE.

Loving Wyoming

The Wyoming Fine Arts Center is the recipient of the PRIDE Grant from ArtsWave. Our goals for this grant include:

- To create a more inclusive community
- Continue to teach students the importance and power of LOVE and acceptance
- Share work on social media to spread awareness to the city at large
- Collaborating with queer creatives and giving artists a platform to show work
- Create an environment of diversity and inclusion that builds a stronger team and city

Our team will be launching several art classes and other initiatives that will be free to the public to participate. Stay Tuned.....

On Friday, February 12, The Center will be open to help support remote learning. Please register in advance.

Daytime programming - Art and Yoga $265

Starting February 1, Monday through Friday - join the UC DAAP interns for a 2 hour Art Class and 1 hour of Yoga or Energy with Ms. Kara or Mr. Steve. Class begins at 8:30 am - 11:30 am for remote learners. Grades K - 4th are welcome. 15 hours a week of programming for those families looking for programming to supplement home schooling or remote lessons.

No School, Let's Art Days - Monday, February 15 and Tuesday, February 16 are No School, Let's Art days. Register here.

Playhouse in the Park - Snowy Day

Based on the books by Ezra Jack Keats

The artistic world of beloved author Ezra Jack Keats unfolds onstage! Follow the adventures of Peter and his friends through heartwarming stories about the wonder of a fresh snowfall, the delight of whistling for the first time, the awe in finding a special treasure and the excitement of sending the perfect letter to a friend. Written with whimsical spirit, this imaginative play with music celebrates the tiny moments of joy within a child's world. Recommended for ages 5 and up.

This FREE, ALMOST SOLD OUT show is available to be viewed once, between Friday, Feb. 12 and Sunday, Feb. 14. Pre-Registration is required.

#ILoveTheArts - ArtsWave's Annual Fund Campaign kicks off Valentine's Day weekend. Beginning Friday, Feb. 12 - Sunday, Feb 14 - buildings around the region will be lit up in red with activities happening inside. The Center's activities will take place on February 13 from 12 pm until 5 pm as we support the Wyoming Community In Action event - Unconscious Bias Art Exhibit.

Unconscious Bias Art Exhibition

Join Ms. Melinda, Director of Visual Arts, in the Ballroom from noon until 5 pm on Saturday, Feb. 13 for activities and an art exhibit. Admission is free. Please use the Ballroom Entrance. Capacity limits will be observed due to current restrictions in place.

Summer Camp Registration is OPEN!

Each week, The Center will be offering 2 camps per day. The morning camps will run from 9 am until noon. Afternoon camps will be available from 1 pm - 4 pm. Children can stay for lunch for an additional fee.
