 Subject: Happy 2021 from The Center!
 Preheader: Concerts, Classes, & More!

Hi!

Happy 2021! As we welcome in the New Year leaving 2020 behind, I know many of us have high hopes for 2021. The Center has increased our programming options this year adding more classes and faculty to our roster.

Annual Fund Letter Results

Thank you for your amazing generosity this year! The Center raised almost $12,000 for a variety of programs. We are blessed to have such a wonderful community that supports us. On behalf of the Board of Trustees, Staff and Faculty - THANK YOU!!!

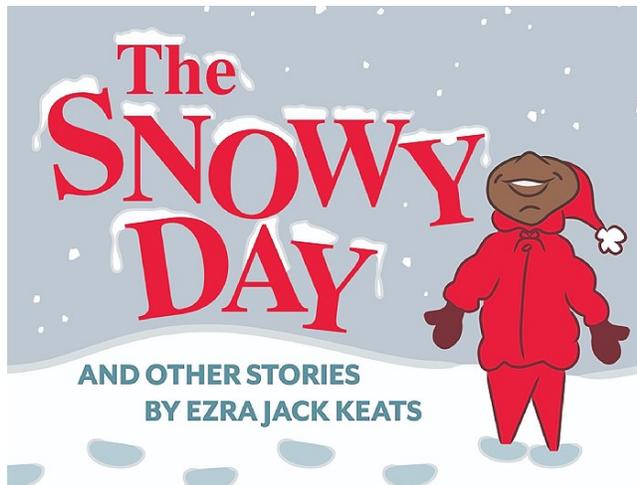

Annual Report 2019/2020

I am excited to share the first ever Annual Report from the Wyoming Fine Arts Center. I would love for you to see how our team has managed through the pandemic while continuing to be engaged with students and the community by finding ways to share our mission. I am unbelievably thankful for you and our staff for working through challenges that we never expected. Thank you!

Cincinnati Guitar Society

The Cincinnati Guitar Society has joined The Center's roster of local non profit partners. Tomorrow night, Saturday, Jan. 23 at 7 pm, please join artist Luke Jackson for a wonderful, music filled night. Cost is $10 at the door. Maximum 35 tickets to be sold.

Playhouse in the Park - Snowy Day

Based on the books by Ezra Jack Keats

The artistic world of beloved author Ezra Jack Keats unfolds onstage! Follow the adventures of Peter and his friends through heartwarming stories about the wonder of a fresh snowfall, the delight of whistling for the first time, the awe in finding a special treasure and the excitement of sending the perfect letter to a friend. Written with whimsical spirit, this imaginative play with music celebrates the tiny moments of joy within a child's world. Recommended for ages 5 and up.

This FREE show is available to be viewed once, between Friday, Feb. 12 and Sunday, Feb. 14. Pre-Registration is required.
