Wyoming Fine Arts CENTER INVITES YOU to GRAB HAPPY a book launch event

Sunday July 18th
2pm - 5pm

$20 - includes autographed book - light refreshments

Both a practical guide and a memoir-in-essays, Grab Happy explores the harrowing, surreal and often infuriating journey of caregiving for aging parents while working, raising young children and living through the end of a marriage. In addition to its stories of combative siblings and elusive car keys, you'll find hands-on advice gained through decades' worth of hard-fought experience. You'll also discover a strong case for changing the way Americans think about dying. Filled with relatable scenarios featuring oblivious surgeons, gut-wrenching decisions and unenviable role reversals, Grab Happy offers a fresh, honest take on critical topics facing more and more grown-up children around the world, especially more than a year into a pandemic.
